

EUMEPLAT

European Media Platforms:
assessing positive and negative
externalities for European culture

EUMEPLAT in Brussels - Join us online

Dear Friends,

On April 17th, Professor Andrea Miconi from IULM - EUMEPLAT principal investigator - will present some of the main findings of the project, in the framework of the UNIMED WEEK in Brussels, the annual event that UNIMED – Mediterranean Universities Union organises in Brussels with the aim to provide the Euro-Mediterranean academic community with an opportunity to reflect on the relationships between European Institutions and the Mediterranean region. The session titled “Disinformation and Misinformation on Migration: the EUMEPLAT project” will take place from 12.15 pm to 12.45 pm (Brussels time), followed by a 15-minute Q&A session.

To join the session online, please use this link and the following credentials:

Meeting ID: 868 1770 0996

Passcode: 680054

The full programme of the UNIMED WEEK is available here.

It will be a pleasure to have you with us!

EUMEPLAT team

EUMEPLAT project partners

Discover more on EUMEPLAT & Follow us

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 101004488